

GREAT BRITAIN WILL AWAIT OUTCOME OF THE

CONSTITUTIONALIST AGENT
DECLARES BRITISH RANCHER
THREATENED VILLA'S LIFE

Plausible Story Is Told by Rebel Agent in Which Villa Is Painted as Courageous and Just—Hurried Departure From Juarez After Murder Is Not Explained

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—Attention of all the world powers interested in the Mexican situation was turned today upon the investigation into the killing of William S. Benton, the British rancher, by General Villa at Juarez.

Secretary Bryan and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, were awaiting official reports with details, and pending that development the situation apparently was unchanged.

Great Britain's usual attitude toward the treatment of her subjects in foreign lands surrounded the Benton case with more than ordinary interest. Intimations in El Paso that other Englishmen, friends of Benton were unheard from, increased the tension of the situation.

Through Inquiry

White every disposition has been shown by the British ambassador here, and by the foreign office in London to be guided by the most scrupulous and impartial investigation, diplomatic critics were prepared for a thorough inquiry into Benton's killing.

Recognition a Mistake

The members of the British government consider that the recognition of the Constitutionalists as belligerents would be a mistake.

The Evening Standard says: "The execution of Benton, which is a fact that some kind of international commission will accept, is a case of Mexico from wallowing in this style of corruption and cruelty."

Mass Peace His Task

The Globe, after asking what is going to happen in case investigation proves the guilt of Villa says: "The United States has not only the responsibility involved in the execution of the Monroe Doctrine but the responsibility of having supplied Villa with arms, thereby promoting the lawlessness which has been such a grievous plague on Mexican lives and interests. President Wilson has gone too far to shrink from going further."

Rebel Explanation

Robert V. Pennington, Constitutional agent, made public the following telegram from Constitutional headquarters at Juarez:

"Benton entered Villa's apartment very unexpectedly, demanded the surrender of his interests and threatened to kill him. Villa, who had been ordered to kill him, considered him an enemy to the Constitutionalists and that in order that he might not continue to work against them, he (Villa) was going to pay him the value of his property (Benton's) and then kill him."

"Benton became very exasperated at this and drew his revolver, intending to kill the general, but the latter immediately knocked him down, disarmed him and sent him to jail. Benton afterwards was sentenced to death and duly executed."

INCIDENT HAS CREATED
SENSATION IN BRITAIN

London, Feb. 21.—The British Government up to noon today had not taken any action in regard to the execution at Juarez of William S. Benton, the Scottish ranchman, beyond instructing Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador at Washington, to obtain from Secretary Bryan all possible information on the affair.

Although the news has created a sensation throughout the British Isles, it has not aroused any disposition on the part of responsible members of the British Government to take any policy in regard to Mexico.

RAILWAYS HAVE SMALL EXPRESS CO. OUTLAY

In Preparation of Express Companies' Earnings Are Large

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—There is no reason from the statistics that the establishment of an express agency by the railways concerned, chiefly the Grand Trunk, Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern, has not involved on their part the outlay of any considerable amount of capital.

True is a common form appears in the annual blue book of express statistics which was laid on the table of the house today. The report shows that capitalization for the distinctly Canadian companies of $4,550,000, and it adds:

"The returns made show that $2,852,500 was realized in cash for the $4,550,000 of common stock outstanding and it is quite clear that nearly as much as the same percentage of the total was invested in physical property or equipment. Practically everything needed to carry on an express business appears to have been provided out of earnings."

On receipts from operation in 1912 amounted to $1,527,475, or compared with $1,934,415 in 1912. The operating expenses in 1912 were $1,181,415, as compared with $1,584,125 in 1912. Net earnings gave the following result to Canadian companies in profit:

Domestic Express Co., $5,38 per cent.; Canadian Northern Express Co., 21.3 per cent.; Canadian Pacific Co., 18.4 per cent.; and the British American Express, 18.4 per cent. with headquarters at 800 St. Mary St. The Dominion Express Co. paid ten per cent. dividend on two millions of common stock, and the Canadian Northern paid a dividend presumably out of accumulated earnings of $154,156. The two other companies, according to the report did not pay a dividend during the year. The operating expenses increased from 30.44 in 1912 to 32.57 in 1913.

GROWING FEELING OF CONFIDENCE REPORTED

Dun's Review of Business Conditions Indicates Improvement in All Lines

New York, Feb. 20.—Despatches to Dun's Review from branch offices of R. G. Dun & Co. in the principal cities of the Dominion of Canada, report that business conditions are improving, though there seems to be a growing feeling of confidence in the future.

Montreal reports that several lines show evidence of improvement. A fair distribution is noted in groceries and some call for hardware paints and oils. Somehow more, however, have been received for leather but receipts of hides are light and of poor quality. General conditions have been quiet this week at Quebec, but the situation between the manufacturers of shoes and their operatives has been settled and is expected to result favorably.

Wholesale trade at Toronto has not been very active but retailers have been benefited by the continuance of moderate weather, especially in heavy dry goods and clothing. There is a fair sorting up demand for merchandise and a number of selling orders have been received.

Trade conditions at Hamilton are not very active, but there is much confidence that improvement will appear with the opening of spring.

The general situation in the far west and northwest is fairly satisfactory and considerable activity is looked for during the next few months.

At Winnipeg the weather has been favorable for the movement of merchandise, and stocks of heavy dry goods have been well reduced. Merchants are beginning to prepare for spring and prospects are considered good.

Conditions at Edmonton are rather slow, though as a whole the movement of merchandise compares favorably with a year ago.

Retail trade at Calgary has been helped by moderate weather, but not expected to show much improvement for the next few weeks.

The situation at Saskatoon is somewhat better and is believed to be the opening of spring market improvements will be seen.

Good earnings of all Canadian railways reported to date for the first two weeks of February show a decrease of 18.4 per cent. as compared with the earnings of the same roads during the corresponding period of 1913.

Three Vancouver Passengers On Great Northern Train Are Shot and Killed by Bandits

Enter Coaches With Handkerchiefs on Their Faces and Revolvers in Hand—Fired Six Shots Into One Man—Purses are Organized But It Is Feared That Outlaws May Escape

(From Morning Edition.)

HELLINGHAM, Wash., Feb. 20.—Three passengers on a Great Northern passenger train bound for Vancouver resisted three bandits tonight, were shot and killed.

Thomas B. Wadsworth, a Canadian Pacific conductor, of Vancouver; R. L. Lee, of Bremerton, Wash., and M. R. McIlhenny, a travelling salesman of Vancouver, were the men killed.

Four Men Resist.

The bandits boarded the train at Burlington, a few miles north of the place where they attacked the passengers in the day coaches. The robbers rode in the smoking car until they were ready to act. They then went into the vestibule between the smoking car and the day coach and held handkerchiefs against their faces and entered the day coach with drawn revolvers.

Most of the passengers, confronted by the thugs, threw up their hands, and four men attempted to resist. Three of these were killed almost instantly.

Two men had gone on through the day coach. One stood at the rear of the train while the other remained in the vestibule. As the three men gripped one of the bandits, the other two rushed to the aid of the man who was being held.

The robber grappled with the man who was being held. The man was quickly fired on. Lee was not killed by the first shot and tried to crawl behind the rear seat. The bandit kept firing at him as he crawled back to the rear of the train.

It is thought they may have taken a boat and gone to the San Juan Islands. The hold-up took place on the edge of Bellingham Bay.

Note.—Bellingham, where the hold-up and murders took place is a small town about twenty miles south of the international boundary and about an hour and a half run from Vancouver by train.

Four Men Resist.

The bandits boarded the train at Burlington, a few miles north of the place where they attacked the passengers in the day coaches. The robbers rode in the smoking car until they were ready to act. They then went into the vestibule between the smoking car and the day coach and held handkerchiefs against their faces and entered the day coach with drawn revolvers.

Most of the passengers, confronted by the thugs, threw up their hands, and four men attempted to resist. Three of these were killed almost instantly.

Two men had gone on through the day coach. One stood at the rear of the train while the other remained in the vestibule. As the three men gripped one of the bandits, the other two rushed to the aid of the man who was being held.

ALBERTA IS SECOND IN CRIME INCREASE

Nova Scotia Leads Provinces of Canada With Increase of 90.34 Per Cent

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—Increase in crime during the past year was remarkably high, as shown by the annual blue book of criminal statistics laid on the table of the house today.

The increase in Nova Scotia was 90.34 per cent; Alberta, 53.9 per cent; British Columbia, 43.9 per cent; Saskatchewan, 33.57 per cent; Manitoba, 24.28 per cent; Quebec, 23.48 per cent; Ontario, 22.9 per cent; Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick were the only provinces to show a decrease in crime.

There were 20,165 charges and 15,487 convictions for indictable offences during the year—for the whole of Canada as against 16,478 charges and 12,437 convictions the year before, making an increase of 1,644 or 11.1 per cent for charges and an increase of 2,948 or 23.5 per cent for convictions. There was an average of 28 convictions for every 1000 inhabitants.

Notable offenders.

A striking feature of the report is the increase shown of 30 per cent in the youthful offenders. The number of young offenders held in detention in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and Prince Edward Island were found in all other provinces.

There are 25 young criminals for every 1000 inhabitants in Ontario, the worst record with 23.95 for Quebec, Alberta and Saskatchewan, 13.41 per 1000. The figures show that there are nine female offenders for every 1000 inhabitants in Ontario, with Manitoba leading with 11.59 per 1000, and Prince Edward Island lowest, with 2.13 per one hundred thousand.

Foreign-born offenders.

That the presence of the foreign-born population has evidently affected criminal statistics is shown in the fact that of 25 convicted of murder 17 were foreign-born. Of 30 convicted of manslaughter, 11 were Canadian, 11 Englishmen and one a Scotchman. Out of 31 persons found guilty of rape, 17 were Canadian, 11 Englishmen and one a Scotchman.

The effect of immigration is still further emphasized by the total figure. The Canadian born offenders represented 84.1 per cent, the British born outside of Canada 15.9 per cent, the United States 1.2 per cent, the Irish 7.5 per cent, and those born in other foreign countries 17.3 per cent of the total convicted.

The total convicted of crime in 1913 was 15,487, as against 12,437 in 1912. The increase in the number of British born outside of Canada was 15.9 per cent, the United States 1.2 per cent, the Irish 7.5 per cent, and those born in other foreign countries 17.3 per cent of the total convicted.

Ray Whisman Is Traded to Moose Jaw Team for Fortier

Deal Was Arranged in Edmonton Yesterday After a Conference Between Magnates Deacon White and Lou Clarke

An important baseball deal was consummated yesterday afternoon when the Edmonton and Moose Jaw magnates, Deacon White and Lou Clarke, got together, and after some discussion decided to make a trade. Whisman for Fortier. Both men are centre fielders while Fortier has the added advantage of being able to make a turn behind the bat. Indeed he very nearly accepted terms as a catcher with Edmonton in 1911.

Been with Edmonton Three Years.—Whisman has been a member of the Edmonton team for the past three years, having been secured in a deal with Spokane, though he was formerly on two pennant winning teams at Medicine Hat. Starting out as a pitcher, he was converted into an outfielder owing to the time he spent in a constant 900 hitter, his appearance at the bat when the bases were loaded always evoked a roar of applause from the bleachers, and if "White" was feeling in good humor, he generally delivered the clean-up hit.

Lost Much of His "Pop" in 1912.—These two words, "Good humor" explain easily why Whisman, a man of undoubted value to any club in this league, is the party to a trade. A disappointed manager has expressed the desire to trade him to a team where he can be used as a pitcher, but Whisman's heart was not in his work. Accordingly there will be little surprise at the report of the trade, as White himself realized that Whisman was not in the form of a pitcher, and that a change would be better for all concerned.

Fortier Will Strengthen Eskimos.—In Fortier, Edmonton gets a good catcher, a better all-around player than Whisman. In Stettin, Fortier and Hoesbeck, Moose Jaw had about the cleanest outfield in the league last year. As a new addition, Fortier will be a valuable asset to the team. As Manager Weed will probably play centre field himself this season, Fortier will be the mainstay of the team, and will be Whisman in Fort's place.

The Baiting Factor of the Two Players Follows:

	R.	G.	A.	B.	P.	H.	E.	T.	B.	O.	B.	B.	P.
Whisman	91	227	54	95	15	4	3	130	10	24	309
Fortier	102	243	74	24	11	7	24	17	22	24	232

Players Are Anxious for Battle.—It is not anticipated that there will be any trouble getting the players' consent to the trade. Whisman has been with the team for three years, and is a good player. Fortier is a new addition, and is a good player. Both players are anxious to go to work, and are looking forward to the season.

Olga Nethersole and "Little Women" Next Week's Features—News of Theatres

Extensive Alterations Planned for The Empire

Interior of the House to be Re-decorated in White, and Other Material Altered and Re-emplaced—Olga Nethersole Dramatized "The Light That Failed"—Stories of Things Theatrical

By G. TEN WHIGHT

MANAGER DUMONT of the Empire Theatre is planning several rather revolutionary alterations in the interior of his third street theatre. Painters and decorators have been called into consultation and it is understood that an entirely new color scheme will be employed. The whole interior will be decorated in white and white, it is planned; alterations will be made to the boxes, and the whole theatre may be carpeted. This latter move will be hailed with joy by the ladies, who at present do not care to wear a costly gown in the theatre, owing to the danger of a mine being set on the floor.

THAT MISS OLGA NETHERSOLE is responsible for the dramatization of Rudyard Kipling's novel, "The Light That Failed," with which Sir Johnston Forbes Robertson made such a deep impression in New York recently, may be generally known. Some time after the novel was first published, Miss Nethersole approached Mr. Kipling with the object of obtaining his permission for his dramatization, but was not at first successful. In his opinion there was not a play to be obtained from his book. After close on three years Miss Nethersole again went asking for Mr. Kipling's reconsideration of his ultimatum and again met with refusal. Mr. Kipling writing: "I have no reason for changing my opinion."

Miss Nethersole then went to work and made the play. The place as now played by Sir Johnston, admitting it to Mr. Kipling. Two weeks later Miss Nethersole had the satisfaction of being a part owner with Mr. Kipling in the play "The Light That Failed." All matters relating to the dramatic version were placed unreservedly in the hands of Miss Nethersole, who subsequently offered the play to her friend and fellow actor, Sir Johnston Forbes Robertson.

THE realm of Wm. Brady's production of "Little Women," a dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's story of New England home life of 50 years ago, which plays here next week, is enhanced by the fact that practically all of the characters are played by actors and actresses of the calibre, the real thing, not merely mousetraps. Several of the old New England families represented their characters and interior decorations for the famous sitting room scene in "Little Women." The chairs, the little table, the picture on the wall and many other accessories used in the play are genuine antiques, such as clutter the attics of nearly all old New England families.

In the matter where antiques are bartered back and forth between buyer and seller, the stocks of old-time furniture and garments of New England aristocratic taste do not extend back far enough into the dim, nebulous past, but at stage accessories giving the true tone and atmosphere to the scene of fifty years ago they are of great value. They serve to give absolutely correct mountings to the play, to lend a touch of realism that could not in any other manner be obtained.

Mr. Brady was able to get all his "Little Women" properties from New England families through the assistance of John S. P. Alcott, only living descendant of Louisa M. Alcott. Brady went to the historic towns of Salem, Concord, Hingham, Newburyport, Boston and elsewhere and called on many people who knew—like P. Nethersole, the Peddars, the Pratts, the Laddes, and others—who boast of Mayflower descent. Accompanying him was Miss Jessie Bonville, who staged "Little Women" for Mr. Brady.

A FEW DAYS ago Messrs. Allen, Murdoch, Beck and other magnates of vaudeville, it is reported went into executive session and fixed their salaries for the coming season. They then and there decreed the end of fancy figures so far as the time vaudeville is concerned. Nora Bayes, who at the height of her popularity as a musical comedy star, was able to demand and received $2,000 per week, has been cut to $1,500.

Edith Harcourt, who has been playing at the Theatre Royal, has been cut to $1,000 per week, while to accept just half that amount if she wishes to take another year into the two-day.

Stella Mayne and Billie Taylor, who had been luxuriating on a $1,200 per week joint salary, were astonished when new contracts were handed them calling for a paltry $800.

Evelyn Sam Bernart was slated for a big cut, but he got wind of the matter and did not apply for a new contract.

Bernard's salary for the five weeks was $2,750. If he had taken further time it would have had to have been for just $1,000 per week less.

This drastic action has been taken by the big time vaudeville, which has suffered in competition with the popular price brand, and with moving pictures that it cannot afford to give the regular salaries prevalent when business was better.

It is not, perhaps, generally known that Mr. Martin Harvey, the famous English actor-manager, who will be seen in Edmonton at the Empire Theatre in repertoire, is not only in the very front rank as a comic actor, but is also one of the leading London critics as one of the most trustworthy on the English stage today.

His Hamlet and his King in "Oedipus Rex" have established for all time his indisputable right to be considered as one of the ablest exponents of tragedy in England today.

The Troubles of a Vaudevillean

One of the Youngest Veterans Takes You Into His Confidence

Vaudeville actors—sometimes the most prosperous—have many business troubles, according to one of the youngest veterans of the profession. "We cope with the shrewdest wit of the curb to secure looking dates," he said. "Sometimes it is the agent who over-reaches the actors, and sometimes it is the vaudeville manager himself. None seems able to resist the temptation to grab a part of the actor's stipend on some fanciful pretext wherever possible. Many and various are the schemes employed to this end. Given the contract, which is drawn by an able lawyer to protect the actor, may become the means of his undoing. Who was it that could drive a coach and four through any law of England? Vaudeville managers and bookers are as crafty as the ribbons, too!"

"In the first place, a vaudeville actor's contract nearly always contains clauses which permit any theatrical person to break any contract by giving any law of England? Vaudeville managers and bookers are as crafty as the ribbons, too!"

Mr. David Bispham Is Coming; Some New Vaudeville Futures

The Orpheum circuit is about to play another troupe card. Mr. David Bispham, the eminent orator, comedian and grand opera star, has been secured for vaudeville and will moderately begin a tour of the Orpheum circuit. Mr. Bispham's remarkable baritone voice is appreciated throughout the musical world. He has also become conspicuous by using various well known verses with musical accompaniment. Among this number is Rudyard Kipling's "Danny Deever," with music by Walter Dumas.

The most pretentious aquatic spectacle that has ever been presented in America unless perhaps at the New York Hippodrome is "Napoleon's Garden of Living Statues," which is an early Orpheum circuit looking. The tank used is large enough to accommodate 120 females.

There are no more deservingly popular dancers in vaudeville than the Kirkmills Sisters. This sextet of stylish steppers have been seen over the Orpheum circuit many times. This year, however, they will appear entirely new dancing routine.

Johnny and Emma Ray have loaned a freshet of laughs to deluge the Orpheum circuit. The Rays are playing a farce called "On The Rio Grande," which is described as an "in client in soldier camp life," where plot and story are not called for. Mr. Sereno has been shot at death. Kirk Mill is in full command and Prince Song enters wearing a counter sign.

The only Spanish dancer whose popularity has approached that enjoyed by the late Carmenita is Mila Oterita. It might be said that Oterita assumed the mantle of a distinguished comedienne. Oterita is coming to America for a limited tour, which will be made over the Orpheum circuit.

NEXT WEEK'S ATTRACTIONS

ORPHEUM VAUDEVILLE.

IT IS NOTHING quite out of the ordinary to find an actress of the ability of Miss Olga Nethersole vaudeville. But Miss Beck has discovered that no actor of actress is too big in the theatrical world to play in vaudeville. Consequently Miss Nethersole has joined the great majority of Thespian who have sought fame and fortune in the two-day. Miss Nethersole is appearing in the third act from "The Photo," which she made famous throughout the English-speaking world. Her supporting company, composed entirely of British actors, has been carefully selected.

The whole bill in fact offered by the Orpheum circuit is management and the first half of next week at the Empire theatre shows strength and attractiveness, as can be seen by the following list:

Herman Timber, known as the "Vernette Comedian," was for many years the drill star of Gus Edwards' "School of Comedy," now having taken his own estate he has broadened out his work and reserves the title bestowed upon him.

A little different from most anything else, is the comedy of "The Three Varsity Fellows," in which is introduced "A Comedy of Errors." These three young chaps have a neatness in the dancing and comedy, which will be found most attractive.

Julia Nash and Company have a farce comedy in "Her First Case," which shows that there is more than a play of things in vaudeville. The comedy is of the real face type, and is action and acting from start to finish.

Two musicians of the popular variety are represented by the "The Frablos," two musicians of sunny Italy. They show the depth of feeling in their playing of the guitar and accordion, as well as singing. Their music is sure to appeal to the masses.

The Hissings are known as modern comedians. They show some strength and balance, seemingly in the comedy of the real face type, and is action and acting from start to finish.

John and Emma Ray have loaned a freshet of laughs to deluge the Orpheum circuit. The Rays are playing a farce called "On The Rio Grande," which is described as an "in client in soldier camp life," where plot and story are not called for. Mr. Sereno has been shot at death. Kirk Mill is in full command and Prince Song enters wearing a counter sign.

The only Spanish dancer whose popularity has approached that enjoyed by the late Carmenita is Mila Oterita. It might be said that Oterita assumed the mantle of a distinguished comedienne. Oterita is coming to America for a limited tour, which will be made over the Orpheum circuit.

There are no more deservingly popular dancers in vaudeville than the Kirkmills Sisters. This sextet of stylish steppers have been seen over the Orpheum circuit many times. This year, however, they will appear entirely new dancing routine.

He will appear at the Pantheon next week in singing monologue. The big show filling act of the week will be the Terry Trupee—seven comedians from Europe. The home of acrobatic perfection, who go through many varied and exciting stunts.

The second act of an acrobatic nature will be that of the Wagner children, a young boy and girl, who in their teens brother and sister, who prove themselves to be nimble and expert in their difficult act.

The well-balanced vaudeville bill always consists of at least one number appealing to the refined and educated, and Miss Vera Berliner occupies this distinctive position in most of her programs. Miss Berliner is a violinist of extraordinary attainments. Next week she will introduce her latest success, "On the Banks of the Love-Light Ray."

Tom Moore and Stanke are new to Edmonton but the duo of performers have a characteristic and excellent act. Tom Moore is a player and singer, and Stanke is a comedian. Their editorial displays form an effective foil.

The sketch of the bill will be the comedy, entitled "Cupid M.D.," presented by the "Theatricals," a complete entertainment of this theatre, including the Pantheoscope.

"LITTLE WOMEN."

WILLIAM A. BRADY'S big production of "Little Women," will be the attraction at the Empire theatre for five performances, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 26, 27 and 28. In addition to the new, satisfactory management, Manager Dumont, of the Empire, has arranged for a special program of musicals.

Undoubtedly the theatre-goers of Edmonton will welcome the new production of "Little Women." The play is one of the most popular New York productions, and has met with tremendous popularity.

Little Women tells a clean, wholesome story of the life of a New England home of the period of the Civil War. It is a story of the life of a family, a story of healthy, everyday life that reaches the heart of the audience.

It is generally known that physicians at Lethbridge jail are used to provincial road work during the summer months. The board of trustees for the winter; and John Stocks, deputy minister of public works, stated yesterday that this practice would be discontinued this year. The new jail at Katchewan was opened as the new jail is erected.

Mr. Builder!

Five reasons why you should use Sand Lime Brick:

- 1.—They are uniform in color, size and quality.
- 2.—They give the most value for the least money.
- 3.—They do not break so easily as clay brick, are absolutely free from blemish and, therefore, go farther.
- 4.—The older they get the harder they become.
- 5.—They are more rapidly and cheaply laid.
